SECTIONS OF COURT

The Ninth Judicial District Court is comprised of seven divisions designated by the letters A, B, C, D, E, F and G; pursuant to La. R.S. 13:587.1.

CRIMINAL TRIALS

Criminal trials will normally be tried in courtroom #5 and #6. Courtroom #5 will primarily be used for the drug court. These transfers are designed to facilitate the orderly disposition of criminal cases set for trial and prevent congestion of the criminal docket. The transfers of criminal cases will be coordinated by the Court Administrator.

To respond to these problems, the Court will designate for rotating two year terms, a division of the Court as a Drug Court Division, which shall have allotted alcohol, drug and/or drug-related offenses as provided by La. R.S. 13:5301-5304. The Ninth Judicial District Court will adopt written policies and guidelines of said cases in accordance with law. These policies and guidelines, and any subsequent amendments, shall be filed with and available from the Clerk of Court—Criminal Section. At the end of the term of a Drug Court judge, the successor shall be selected by the judges of the Ninth Judicial District Court six months prior to the beginning of the new term, with priority to be given to senior judges. The Clerk of Court shall be notified of the Drug Court Division by order of the Court.
